For some time it has been the task of the real newspapers of Kentucky to correct on the day following the lies Lewis county man was so scared after that Tom Campbell's subsidized press have published the day before.

ALL of the great newspapers of the country are opposed to the principles contained in the Chicago platform. But this fact is explained by Mr. BRYAN with the one word, "conspir-

Now, however, fortyeight hours have elapsed without the discovery of the eighth "man who fired the fatal shot," and without THOMAS CONFESSOR CAMPBELL furnishing a fresh cock-and-bull story to his subsidized press. Just now Mister CAMPBELL doesn't appear to be earning his share of the boodle,

WHAT is the matter with The Courier-Journal's Frankfort liar? T'other day he told a very pretty story about the alleged connection of Mr. H. E. Yoursey with the assassination of Senator GOEBEL, winding up with the strange declaration, "Colonel CAMP-BELL said he did not believe this story!" Well, that's to CAMPBELL'S credit, anyway; while he is pretty low down in the scale, whenever he refuses to believe what he sees in The Courier-Journal there is yet hope for him.

DEE ARMSTRONG, the Louisville De tective who has been working on the alleged conspiracy to assassinate Senator GOEBEL, said-

Nieces and Nephews Charge That Their Aunt Was Influenced in Making It

Louisville, Ky., March 31.-The suit to break the will of the late Mrs. Florence Irvin Botto was filed in the circuit court. The plaintiffs in the case are 20 nephews and nieces of Mrs. Irvin, children of the two brothers and two sisters of her first husband, the late Capt. James F. Irvin. They claim that the entire estate, valued at $200,-000, goes to them by the laws of descent; also, that Capt. Irvin's will bequeathing the estate to Mrs. Irvin and son Guy, now deceased, contained isions which made it impossible her to dispose of the property as he has. According to the will, her husband, Will Botto, who was 30 years her unior, receives one-third, while his mother, Mrs. Cloteal Botto, gets $55,-000. The petition charges that the will offered for probate is not her last will and testament, but that all these papers disposing of her estate were signed by Mrs. Irvin Botto when she was incompetent to make a will, and was forced to sign it by her husband and his mother, Mrs. Botto. The plaintiffs are scattered throughout living in this city.

RUMORS OF INDICTMENTS.

The Fayette County Grand Jury Adjourns, but Its Doings Kept From the Public.

Lexington, Ky., March 31 .- The Fayette county grand jury has ad- paid, on receipt of journed. Under a rule of the circuit court recently adopted, no indictments are given out till warrants are served. It is rumored that several of the local officers who assisted in the arrest of Powers and Davis were indieted, but no intimation as to what specific charge.

It is known that Policeman W. E. Looney was indicted for Assault and battery. It is alleged that he struck Secretary of State Powers on the head on Saturday night, March 10, when the latter and Capt, Davis were arrested here while trying to escape in the disguise of soldiers' uniforms. Secretary Powers was bleeding so profusely that he had to have his injuries dressed while in the city prison here that night, and he claimed that h was struck after he had been landed in the prison. The officers claim that Secretary Powers resisted arrest diers in the car, and that he was struck while they were attempting to take him into custouv.
